ISTITUTO SCIENTIFICO UNIVERSITARIO SAN RAFFAELE

ISTITUTO SCIENTIFICO UNIVERSITARIO SAN RAFFAELE

Milano, September 23-25, 2010

Dear Friends,

it is a great honour and pleasure for me to chair the FIRST VITILIGO WORLD CONGRESS which is to take place on September 23-24, 2010 at the San Raffaele Scientific Institute of Milano.

Why at the San Raffaele Scientific Institute? Because, using the words of its Founder and President, Don Luigi Maria Verzé, "the San Raffaele complex focuses exclusively on every aspect of man: a blend of soma, intellect and spirit as far as duration and quality are concerned", as well as because clinical and basic research are core activities of the San Raffaele Scientific Institute.

Why a Congress dedicated solely to vitiligo? Because in spite of it not being a rare disease, of being classified as a disease by the WHO (World Health Organisation) and of being one of the most psychologically devastating chronic skin diseases, with a major impact on both patients and their families, vitiligo is still today underrated and underestimated. Still today there are dermatologists who minimize the impact of the disease, who trivialize the condition or deceive patients' expectations, leaving them vulnerable to therapies not proven effective, therapies often found within the depths of Internet.

In view of the fact that these last ten years have witnessed a growing interest for research and an improved understanding of the mechanisms regulating the disease, of its genetic susceptibility and of the role played by autoimmunity this highly intense conference, the Faculty of which is made up by the most eminent experts in the field, sets itself the goal of becoming an ideal occasion for an innovative and in-depth analysis of vitiligo.

The Congress is going to focus on recent developments in our understanding of the disease, touching on such different research areas as genetics, endocrinology, immunology, photobiology and psychology. Old and new therapeutic approaches for vitiligo are going to be a major issue for debate. Saturday, September 25, is going to be dedicated to patients: "Vitiligo, where are we now? Interaction among patients, clinicians and scientists". Goal of this event is to allow patients to play an active role in the field of research and to provide them with more information on existing therapies.

With the hope that each one of You may make their contribution to this Congress I send you my best regards,

Santo Raffaele Mercuri

 What's new?

At the end of the Congress, on Saturday - September 25th, the Chairman would be pleased to host all vitiligo patients for "Vitiligo 2010: where are we now? Interaction among patients, clinicians and scientists"

This meeting is realised in collaboration with ARIV (Associazione Italiana Ricerca e Informazione per la Vitiligine), a patient-driven, non-profit organisation based in Italy, representing the interest of those affected by vitiligo. Its aim is to improve the quality of life of patients and families, helping them to cope with the disease and its disfiguring unpredictable skin changes.

The First Vitiligo World Congress is a good opportunity to open new communication channels: patients will have the chance to work in partnership with investigators, clinicians and healthcare professionals, interacting with members of the international vitiligo scientific community. Moreover, patients will have the chance to assume an active role in participating and encouraging present and future research.

The participation is free of charge. To learn more details, please visit the congress website or contact the Organising Secretariat.
